

Professional Profile

Rick Madar

(972) 896-0809

www.linkedin.com/in/rickmadar

www.e-docTEK.com, rick@e-docTEK.com

SUMMARY

Managing Consultant with focused experience in document process improvement and information access technologies. Expertise in integrated computer applications of electronic content, forms, and image management solutions. Key positions held in strategy definition, needs analysis, user requirements and project definition, project implementation, services delivery, training, and customer support. Possesses an excellent balance of industry, technical, and marketing knowledge. Highly knowledgeable of both the end-user and vendor solution environments.

SPECIALTIES

Document process improvement through the application of information and advanced document technologies including: Content, Image, and Forms Management Systems, Workflow applications, Workgroup Collaboration, intelligent PDF Document Applications, Print Merge and eForms Processing Systems, Digital Media applications, and Internet/Intranet Website Publishing. Professional Services implementation experience involves cloud computing (SAAS), client/server LAN, and personal computer environments.

INDUSTRY

Very knowledgeable in the financial services industry segment including expertise in banking, insurance, and software service organizations. Significant work experience in both Commercial and Residential Mortgage Banking lending operations at two large nationwide banks. Consulting experience in manufacturing focused on automating Marketing distribution and Sales force operations. Highly involved within business trade organizations concerning electronic forms, document printing, and web content publishing strategies. Previous Director-at-Large of the Business Forms Management Association (BFMA), Dallas/Fort Worth Chapter. Received Regional Service Award and Chapter Merit Award for dedicated Service, Commitment, and Contributions to BFMA activities during 1998 and 1999. Served as a Board member of the local chapter of Association of Information and Image Management (AIIM).

APPLICATIONS

Experienced in the project management, customization, and services delivery of industry leading image management, content management, and document processing software solutions including: FileNet, SharePoint, Adobe Forms, Office365 and EFS eMerge. Application expertise involving MS .NET, IIS, XML, PDF, HTML, Joomla, Wordpress, and SQL database access and BI presentation technologies.

TRACK RECORD

Formally recognized as a high-performance professional with strong management qualities to assure success in a variety of assignments. Excellent communication skills with the ability to work effectively within executive and operational management levels.